Introduction

ArbPepe is an upgraded and better version of Pepe with a twist - Hold and get rewarded in ETH! The token is now available on the Arbitrum network. In this whitepaper, we will explain the tokenomics of ArbPepe and how the Balancer bot will keep the chart healthy.

ArbPepe has a maximum supply of 1 Quadrillion tokens. This ensures that the token is not scarce and is easily accessible to anyone who wants to invest in it.

Buy & Sell Tax

ArbPepe has a 10% buy/sell tax, out of which 8% goes to the pool for ETH rewards, and 2% goes to the marketing wallet. The buy/sell tax encourages holders to hold onto their tokens, while also ensuring a steady flow of rewards to the pool for ETH rewards and funds for marketing efforts.

Reward System

ArbPepe offers a unique reward system to its holders. Holders of ArbPepe will be rewarded in ETH for holding the token. This means that the longer a holder holds the token, the more ETH they will receive. The ETH rewards can be claimed by user when reward generated.

Marketing Wallet

The marketing wallet will be used to promote ArbPepe and increase its visibility in the cryptocurrency market. The funds from the marketing wallet will be used for influencer marketing, social media marketing, and other promotional activities.

Balancer Bot

To ensure that the chart of ArbPepe remains healthy, we have implemented a Balancer bot. The Balancer bot will buy and sell ArbPepe tokens based on the current price of the token. This will help keep the token's price stable and prevent sudden dips or spikes.

Roadmap

Phase 1:

- Launch on the Arbitrum network
